Music and the Arts

Music and the Arts is a series of concerts presented each season as part of the Music Program at Orchard Park Presbyterian Church under the direction of Music Director, Gregory White. In its third season, these concert offerings have been received with enthusiasm by the Western New York community for presenting local, national, and international performing artists. Artists and performing ensembles come to us across Western New York, the United States, and Europe (Germany, Russia, Switzerland, and England). Each season, Music and the Arts offers an array of concert programs representing a variety of artists, ensembles, and musical genre that includes classical, early music, contemporary, jazz, blues, vocal, instrumental, choral masterworks, and seasonal and ethnic favorites. Artists have included: Lyra (Russian Opera Singers); Peter Griggs, Classical Guitar; Buffalo Gay Men's Chorus; Community Advent Chorale, Chamber Orchestra and Soloists (Messiah); Vocalis; Freudig Singers; Chanson du Soir (Soprano and Classical Guitar Duo); Duo Mydo (Cello and Organ Duo); Derrick Smith, Baritone; Camerata (Soprano, Cello, Oboe, Keyboard); Kindred (Celtic Music); Doug Yeomans, Guitarist; and many others. Music and the Arts concerts generally take place on Sunday afternoons or evenings; audience admission supports artist honorariums.
